If you're looking for somewhere to start your property empire, then start right here!! A spacious 3 bedroom brick veneer home with family room, kitchen, meals area, bathroom and covered front and rear verandahs. The old LUG has been converted into basic self-contained accommodation. The large rear yard has side access and the vendors have concreted a large section of the yard, whilst the remainder is full of established gardens and fruit trees. The home also features a solar power system, garden shed and concrete car parking at the front. Please contact the friendly team at Lauders Real Estate to organise your private inspection.
