Nestled in a quiet coastal pocket around the corner from our popular Sports Oval and just up the road from the beach, Marina, shopping, dining, schools and playgrounds, this is a great prospect for home buyers looking to set themselves up and a great opportunity for savvy investors. This 4-bedroom home has one of the best family layouts with so much character, raked ceilings in the large sunken lounge room, great flow and space with formal dining or games room and an open plan living area. Sunken lounge with fireplace, separate front lounge/games room, master with corner spa bath, freshly painted and renovations to the main bathroom. With some added upgrades and finishing touches this place could be made into your own resort! Central kitchen flows onto the dining and large family areas with views overlooking the sparkling inground pool and extending to the fantastic outdoor entertaining area which is a great space to relax and unwind. Generous backyard offers great space for kids and pets to run and plus plenty of room leftover for gardens, a veggie patch and even a chicken or 2! Follow the path further down and you will find a large fully powered workshop. Really, it's all here and sure to impress! From the front yard you capture ocean glimpses, if you really wanted to go all out you could extend upwards and capture some incredible views. Ducted air conditioning, alarm and security screens to windows, double garage with store room, this home on a BIG 810m² parcel of land represents great value in the market. Make the call today and see what you can do with these great bones and make it your own. Contact Kelsie Leach from LJ Hooker Two Rocks on 0433 431 854.
