Once in a while a property comes along, and you can just imagine what it would be like for the new family owning this property. The sound of the kids outside playing, laughing, getting dirty, running, hiding, and just having fun. This 4-bedroom 2-bathroom family property is a rare opportunity for a young growing family that wants to be minutes away from town, living a country life without the burden of acreage. I love that the Master bedroom with ensuite is the only room upstairs. This setup is gold, you can get away for a Nanna nap, shift workers, or just to read a book and relax. I love that there are 2 entertainment areas, one has a toilet and the other is awesome, you just need to see it. I love the kids play areas. I just love the property to be honest and can't wait for the new family to move in, you will love it too. Come have look it's pretty cool."
