127 Penquite Road, Newstead is ideal for young families, couples or first home buyers. Built in 1965, this mid-century three-bedroom brick property boasts original features including Tas Oak flooring and gorgeous oversize windows to allow for all-day light to filter through. The lounge and open plan kitchen and dining area, is complete with an expansive east facing deck, capturing the morning sun. Set on a great size block, approx. 668m², the house is well positioned, providing a flat, spacious backyard. The oversize single car garage, as well as heaps of additional storage space, (enough for a workshop), is located under the house, along with the laundry. Conveniently located in walking proximity to many schools, amenities and the Punchbowl Reserve, this property is well positioned for easy living.
