Welcome to 128 Castledoyle Road, Armidale, a picturesque 3+ bedroom house nestled amidst beautiful countryside on a generous 11.3-acre block. This property is an ideal opportunity for first-time buyers, investors and tree-changers seeking tranquility without compromising on proximity to town amenities. On top of this already attractive offering lies the potential to subdivide this spacious block (STCA) and turn your dream home into a savvy investment. Featuring sun-drenched interiors with a harmonious flow from the open plan living areas through to the kitchen, every room provides stunning rural outlooks. The house also boasts a light-infused sunroom and a covered deck area, perfect for entertaining and al fresco dining. Attached to the back of the home lies a second flat offering opportunity with a few touch ups to provide further income potential from this exciting property. Outdoor enthusiasts and horse lovers will appreciate the ample space for keeping horses or other livestock. The low maintenance, sweeping backyard is complemented by neatly manicured gardens, offering a serene retreat with native gum trees and an array of local wildlife. Situated in a highly sought-after position on Castledoyle road, this property provides the ideal balance of a peaceful, rural lifestyle with the convenience of being mere minutes from town. Seize this chance to enjoy the best of both worlds - privacy, space and a rural setting, within easy reach of local amenities. Don't miss out on the chance to secure your piece of rural paradise.
