Behind a private street frontage and set over two levels bathed in natural light, this thoroughly modernised Californian bungalow offers a rare amount of space great for those who love to entertain. With its flowing indoor/outdoor design, a northeast rear garden with heated pool plus generous parking, the home is perfect throughout and needs absolutely nothing done. The owners have spent a lot of time over the last 20 years customising the floorplan whilst remaining true to the character of the original house, including an upstairs retreat especially for the kids, a wonderful cook's kitchen, a home office in addition to the four bedrooms, updated bathrooms and a large deck with summer kitchen overlooking the swimming pool. The location, too, is so convenient - a short walk to Great North Road shops, cafes and restaurants, and with easy access to bay parklands, Russell Lea Public School and city transport including the future Five Dock Metro.

- Spacious living, formal dining area and sunroom/office
- Recently renovated kitchen and ground floor bathrooms
- Ideal kids' retreat upstairs with two beds and bathroom
- Ducted/split system air, gas fire, lined attic storage
- Northeast covered deck, lawn and solar swimming pool
- Off-street parking for three cars incl. tandem carport
