

128 Kinghorne Street, Goulburn, NSW 2580

Sold House

Friday, 3 November 2023

128 Kinghorne Street, Goulburn, NSW 2580

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 1

Area: 645 m2

Type: House

Barry McEntee
0248228711

Bella Greig
0248228711

$570,392

* Charming full brick character home with plenty of street appeal, conveniently located close to the hospital, schools and the CBD * The flexible floorplan offers 4 really good sized bedrooms and 2 separate living rooms which is a huge bonus in this price range. Delightful polished timber floorboards and other period features are very attractive* The modern kitchen has loads of cupboard space and enjoys good natural light as does the spacious dining room which links the kitchen and main living room * The bathroom has been tastefully renovated and there is a very handy second toilet located near the laundry * Excellent climate control with a combination of reverse cycle air conditioning and gas heating. There is also a 6.3KW solar system* Side access to a carport, garage and workshop. Established rear yard with a pergola and BBQ area * A really good property that could suit a multitude of buyers – priced to today's market & offering great value. Rental Appraisal: $440 - $460 pw approx All of our properties are available for private inspection at a time that suits you. You don't have to wait for a scheduled open house - please contact us to discuss a suitable inspection time.