Idyllically positioned in one of Kingaroy's most tightly held pockets, this property has the potential to create a timeless home. Impressive northern views of undulating farmland delivers an escape away from everyday life. The current layout of the home consists of 2 roomy bedrooms, large bathroom, a central kitchen, dining, 2 living areas and a rear deck. The current floor plan is large enough to allow for an easy transition to a 3 or even 4 bedroom home. While dated throughout, the home has good bones, as well as a location and view that can not be replaced. Established well maintained gardens surround the home, single lock up garage and a carport provide adequate car accommodation, rear access to the back yard allows for a shed or additional storage in the future, the block totals 809 sqm. Create something special, you'll have a home that is rare in this town.
