

128 Nelson Street, Cranbourne East, Vic 3977

Sold House

Monday, 8 January 2024

128 Nelson Street, Cranbourne East, Vic 3977

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 448 m2

Type: House

Andrew Tang
0420428318

Vanessa Tran
0413278057

$734,000

Discover your urban oasis in the heart of Cranbourne East! This desirable home, located within walking distance of Casey Fields' stunning park and sporting facilities, offers something for everyone. Whether you prefer the dog park, playground, ovals, or a leisurely stroll around the lake, this spot has it all. You're just moments away from Clyde Village and Cranbourne Park shopping precincts, and excellent schools are nearby. Enjoy a coffee at the local favorite, Mumshies Cafe, or savor dinner with friends at the Amstel Club. Set upon a generously proportioned 448m² land allotment, this home is designed to offer spacious living at its finest. Meticulously maintained, it shines in an as-new condition, showcasing a contemporary open plan kitchen featuring a sleek stone benchtop and brand-new cooktop and oven. With two distinct living areas, it's the perfect haven for families looking to unwind and relax after a delicious dinner. Stay comfortable year-round with central heating and split system in the family room. The master bedroom boasts a walk-in-robe and ensuite, offering a private retreat within your urban oasis. Step outside to your outdoor alfresco area, providing an ideal space to entertain family and friends year-round. The expansive, low-maintenance secured backyard invites your creativity to flourish, offering endless opportunities to craft your personal outdoor sanctuary. Don't let this chance slip through your fingers – seize the opportunity to make this your forever home, your very own urban oasis in the heart of Cranbourne East.