Magnificently set within absolutely stunning landscaped gardens and commanding breathtaking uninterrupted range views. This appealing home is enviably positioned in a family-friendly neighbourhood in Highfields providing families with marvellous recreation and lifestyle facilities at your doorstep. From the private sitting room at the front of the home to the home theatre positioned at the rear, the main living that is central to the home provides a balance to the rest of the home and is perfect for everything from day to day living or entertaining. A stone path leads to the welcoming entrance where timber floors flow underfoot to the sun-drenched living room opening to a gorgeous deck offering spectacular garden and range views. Zoned for effortless family living and relaxed entertaining, the open plan living area is all about the incredible views. Timber glass stacker doors open out to an undercover southerly facing alfresco entertaining deck where wonderful range vistas and dramatic sunsets can be enjoyed. An expansive sun-drenched family living and dining area incorporates an elegant kitchen equipped with premium appliances and stylish cabinetry. Walls of glass windows with stunning vistas, sophisticated textures and a natural palette provide a cozy ambience to the front lounge creating a truly tranquil space. The main bedroom has been designed to feel more like a private retreat to retire to in the evenings. From the spacious bedroom to the impressive ensuite boasting twin basins and glass doors opening to your own private deck, you will love spending time within this space. To finish the home a kids retreat and an additional 3 generous bedrooms, each with built in robes and are all serviced by a modern and beautifully appointed main bathroom.
