Nestled within the recently developed Whitestone Point Subdivision and positioned just a short distance from the banks of the Derwent River, this sophisticated and modern residence offers a multitude of appealing features. Crafted to the highest standards, the home showcases quality fixtures, fittings, and appliances, exuding a contemporary yet inviting ambiance throughout. The open-plan living space is bathed in natural light, creating a timeless and refined atmosphere. The kitchen features an island bench, providing the option for a convenient breakfast bar, ideal for dynamic family living. The accommodation comprises a master bedroom with an ensuite and walk-in robe, accompanied by two additional bedrooms equipped with built-in robes. A well-appointed main bathroom services the home, featuring a shower, vanity, and bathtub. Convenience is further enhanced by a single-car garage with internal access through the laundry. The external space on this property allows for ample development opportunities, and off-street parking is also available. Situated in the thriving and desirable suburb of Austins Ferry, the residence enjoys proximity to shopping, schools, public transportation, and medical facilities, all reachable within a 5-minute drive. The property is approximately a 20-minute drive from Hobart's CBD. In a sought-after location, this home offers a modern and elegant living environment. With great accommodation, an open-plan layout, and level entry, the interiors are light and bright, making it an ideal choice for a diverse range of buyers seeking a home close to essential services.
