Nestled on the tranquil avenues of Bassendean, 129 First Ave is a testament to comfortable living with a touch of charm. Step inside this carefully crafted 3x2 home to discover a haven where every corner tells a story. As you enter, you're greeted by a separate theatre room, perfect for cozy movie nights or catching up on your favorite shows. The spacious master bedroom awaits, offering a sanctuary of comfort and relaxation. With its generous proportions and a private ensuite, it's the perfect retreat after a long day. From lazy Sunday mornings to restful nights, indulge in the luxury of space and tranquility within your own home. Venture further, and you'll find yourself in the heart of the home – an open-plan kitchen, dining, and family area. Freshly painted walls throughout the home provide a blank canvas, inviting you to infuse your personality and style. The minor bedrooms are ready for creativity to make them your own individual space! Outside, a small backyard offers a slice of outdoor serenity amidst the hustle and bustle of everyday life. The rear access garage adds a practical touch, ensuring convenience is always within reach. The street frontage is adorned with a retaining wall & gardens, offering not only privacy but also a sense of tranquility. Picture yourself unwinding on balmy evenings, savoring the quiet moments in the small alfresco area at the front of the property. Life at 129 First Ave means convenience is never far away. With local schools, parks, transport options, and shops just a stone's throw away, every errand becomes a breeze. Whether it's dropping the kids off at school, enjoying a leisurely stroll in the nearby park, or picking up groceries, everything is within easy reach. This home isn't just a house; it's a canvas waiting for you to paint your story. From movie nights to family gatherings, every moment spent here is a memory in the making.
