Approximately 500 hidden and elevated acres with some very special views located just 30 minutes drive north of Dungog in the tightly held Underbank area. Access is via close to 5km of legal ROW over track in use. Approximately 20% of the property is cleared with the balance covered in mixed hardwood timbers. There is a network of internal tracks throughout the property which is perimeter fenced (new northern boundary under construction now) and double frontage to the seasonal Black Camp Creek. Surrounded by mountains and ideal as a family escape offering adventure at every turn whether it's for camping, horses, cattle or motorbikes those weekend getaways will be unforgettable. Inspections strictly by appointment. Please call Tavis on 0428 921 704 to arrange a suitable time.
