This is a perfect first home buyer or holiday house in the popular seaside community of Tomakin, that offers flexibility to accommodate your lifestyle. Set over three levels, you are immediately captivated by light-filled interiors, soaring ceilings and a modern open plan design. First level is a generous living space, with hardwood timber floors, generous open plan kitchen, dining and living area that opens to a large undercover outdoor deck. Separate laundry with storage and external access to backyard. Second level has two sisal carpeted good-sized bedrooms, with built in robes. There is a bathroom and separate powder room also on this level. The loft level contains another large bedroom with built-ins or an office or media/games room. Fully fenced, with a secure backyard and a stone's throw from the Tomakin Club, service station and less than 2 minutes' drive to the local IGA supermarket. Tomakin River and beaches are an easy bicycle ride or 2 minute drive.
