A little slice of history nestled within easy walk of town, this three bedroom character filled home has the charm of a bygone age. Moved from Strathmore, the home built in the 1920s, offers all the cosy comfort of the era and lovely period features including high ceilings with decorative plaster work, sash windows, decorative doors and beautiful leadlight doors and sidelights. Glass doors in the living room open to a covered deck offering a lovely spot to sit and enjoy the privacy of the 563m² (approx.) block tucked away at the rear on own title. A well appointed timber kitchen features a bay window, generous storage and dishwasher. The bedrooms include a peaceful master with built in robe, split system and ceiling fan and along with ceiling fan in the second bedroom, split system in the lounge and ducted heating, the home is prepared for whatever weather Melbourne can throw at it. Further comforts include spacious bathroom with large shower, laundry with etched window, storage cupboards, internal access single garage with workshop space and plenty of parking with room for a caravan and the security of electric gates. Enjoy an easy stroll into town for a coffee, pop into the IGA or walk the dog on the Warburton Trail with Mt Evelyn Memorial Pre-school, Mt Evelyn Early Learning Centre, Mt Evelyn Primary and Yarra Hills College with walk or short drive.
