Right in the heart of St Kilda East, just a short stroll from the open spaces of Alma Park and surrounded by cafes, popular restaurants and the ease of city-bound transport, this bright, airy, and charmingly refurbished two-bedroom, one-bathroom apartment offers residents a fantastic blend of convenience and lifestyle. With almost direct access to public transport and beloved local hotspots along Chapel St, as well as the opportunity to indulge in your morning coffee ritual amidst the serene surroundings of Alma Village, every day here offers a new adventure. Generous and light-filled throughout, the practical layout invites easy living, with two well-proportioned bedrooms, both of which have plenty of built-in storage and peaceful leafy outlooks, whilst the adjacent bathroom is bright, spacious and thoughtfully designed with a separate toilet and provisions for laundry facilities. Living and dining extends to the private balcony, the perfect place to enjoy some morning sun, while the adjoining kitchen and dining area features plenty of storage space, as well as chic period-style splashback tiles. An unrivalled opportunity to enjoy a peaceful oasis amongst the buzzing lifestyle that awaits in St Kilda East, with St Kilda Beach, Melbourne's CBD and High St and Carlisle St's thriving retail, transport and dining precincts all nearby, this lock-and-leave base also includes high ceilings, new plush carpeting throughout, and the rarity of off street parking for one.
