Open home ONLY Boutique development located 13 kilometers of CBD Messiter is in Campsie, a vibrant and popular suburb in South-western Sydney, walking distance to Campsie station, only 20 minutes to Central by train. Close to education institutions, shops, supermarkets and excellent restaurants. Easy access to neighbouring suburbs, such as Burwood and Hurstville, make life full of variety. Inside, designers have meticulously equipped your new home with superior finishes, subtle colour palettes and clever floor plans which come together to give you the lifestyle and comfort that is sought after yet rarely found. Add your own unique flair by personalising the well designed space or unwind and take in the views from the sun filled balcony as you survey the scenery. This 2-bedroom apartment offers great internal through-out ventilation. Designer kitchens feature Caesarstone bench tops, splash backs, imported stainless steel appliances including a dishwasher. Access to the basement carpark is available. Open home ONLY
