Under Application!

Located in an endearing and sought-after mews development in the heart of East Fremantle, this light-filled three-bedroom, one-bathroom townhouse is the quintessential lock-and-leave with cosy, coastal charm. Laid in warm bamboo flooring the ground level enjoys views to a front and rear courtyard which when fully opened, provide excellent breezeways in the summer months and the perfect zones for entertaining. The practical kitchen with induction stovetop, soft closing white drawers and cupboards, granite bench-tops and a European style laundry of this space. A beach-house-style white timber staircase leads to the three bedrooms furnished in plush, truffled-hued carpets and white plantation shutters along with a large and bright modern bathroom with separate toilet. Two bedrooms include ceiling fans, with the bright master suite featuring wall-length built-in robes and a split system air-conditioner for extra comfort. Free time will be spent exploring breathtaking walking trails, green open spaces and the many entertainment options which are merely metres away. The Left Bank hotel, Sweetwater rooftop bar, some of Perth's iconic cafes and several yacht and tennis clubs await. Not to mention bustling Fremantle, and all its attractions just minutes away. Known for its family friendly, safe and diverse community, this home is equally adaptable to small families, couples or singles seeking a low-maintenance, active lifestyle in one of the country's most spectacular riverside enclaves. 3 bedrooms 1 bathroom 1 car - ?
