Nestled in the heart of the city, a display of urban sophistication unfolds within the walls of this meticulously crafted 1 bedroom, 1 bathroom, ground floor apartment. A creation by the renowned Forme Projex, this residence combines aesthetics with practicality. As you step through the entrance, enjoy the flood of natural light through the expansive windows which cast a warm ambiance across the open-plan living room. The kitchen is not just a functional space; it has been well designed to include everything you'd expect in a quality apartment. It comes complete with great storage, a dishwasher, a brand-new oven, and much more. The bedroom is massive and includes wall to wall build-in robes. You will also find large storage cupboards adjacent the kitchen, and ample space in the bathroom too. You will find a secure patio area behind the gates which is a beautiful space to house your potted garden. With direct access to the street, this apartment connects you to the vibrant rhythm of urban life with ease. Ideally located within walking distance to trendy cafes, restaurants, entertainment venues, the Adelaide Central Market, quality schools, Adelaide University, and public transport, this a smart investment that is worth your inspection. Elevate your living experience and contact us today to inspect this exclusive ground floor apartment.
