Sitting amid sunny skies and treetop vistas on the second floor, this two-bedroom apartment is a stylish and spacious home to retreat to after a busy day. Cocooned in quiet double-glazed windows and solid-brick comfort, the home is peaceful sanctuary, enjoying a secluded position at the rear of a peaceful garden complex of 14 units. Framed by floor-to-ceiling windows, the air-conditioned lounge room offers excellent space to mingle with friends, enriched by a concealed wine bar, and a wide balcony for breezy alfresco enjoyment. The adjoining kitchen hosts casual dining in style, offering plenty of modern storage and a freestanding stove. Both bedrooms are sized to nurture private retreat with built-in robes, including faraway views to the northern horizon from the main bedroom. Completed by a sparkling bathroom with laundry facilities, plenty of storage, plus a garage, the home offers instant comfort and security including video intercom entry. Positioned at the edge of Kew Junction, the home promotes a bustling lifestyle with cosy cafes, boutique retailers, and city-bound trams at its doorstep, a leisurely stroll or tram ride to Glenferrie Road's vibrant shopping precinct, leading schools, and relaxing parklands, while minutes from the Eastern freeway.
