This delightful home in desirable Adele St, Alstonville is perfect for the young family or those looking to downsize without too much compromise. Bright, airy and with a "beachy" vibe, the home boasts built in robes in all three bedrooms, a good sized family bathroom, renovated kitchen with a very pretty glass splashback, open dining which leads onto the back deck which in turn looks over the fantastically family friendly rear garden. A designated fire pit area is sure to be the central feature of many backyard get togethers. So close to all the wonderful cafes and shops Alstonville has to offer, plus school buses pass by the door for the kids to jump onto to attend either of the Primary Schools, or High School, located in Alstonville. This gorgeous home is priced to sell and inspections will not disappoint. Call exclusive agent Tina Kelly to arrange your inspection.
