A bespoke renovation and addition in collaboration with MC Design and Greenstone Homes has created this truly inspired residence where warmth, modern comfort and functionality merge over two light filled levels. On a sought-after street in Glebe's prestigious 'Toxteth Estate' and featuring tree filtered Anzac Bridge views, the home overlooks the sacred Taoist temple at the rear with its striking architecture and vivid colour providing a uniquely private and harmonious ambience. Interiors are defined by a cleverly adaptable floorplan with multipurpose spaces and desirable indoor/outdoor entertainment flow plus secure parking with rear lane access, while the premium location is just 2mins walk from foreshore parklands, handy to Jubilee Park light rail, Tramsheds and the heart of Glebe village. Exceptional design detail and quality Custom interiors, abundant sunlight Open living-dining, induction kitchen Spacious bedrooms providing built-ins Versatile upstairs level with balcony Suits single level living downstairs Two bathrooms, one including bath Blackbutt joinery, multiple skylights Engineered oak flooring throughout Motorised blinds, generous storage Northeast rear deck for entertaining Taoist temple & Anzac Bridge views Rear lane access courtyard parking Foreshore parks at bottom of street 5min walk to Jubilee Park light rail 500m from the Tramsheds precinct 13 Alexandra Road – space and style
