Welcome to your ideal family sanctuary. Set on 670+sqm, this charming 3-bedroom 1950's Victorian home effortlessly marries classic elegance with modern convenience, respecting the history of its period features. All within the heart of Mansfield. Stepping into the entry foyer, you are greeted with hardwood timber feature flooring throughout. Two spacious bedrooms and a cosy formal lounge lead you to a light filled well, appointed kitchen and dining area, flowing onto your private third bedroom and casual lounge complete with a wood fire heater ensuring ample comfort and convenience for your family's needs. Each window offers tranquil garden views, creating a seamless connection between the indoors and outdoors. When you do step outside, you'll discover an expansive rear landscaped garden, a large 6x4m shed, complete with side access and carport for off-street parking, providing both convenience and abundant space to cater to your requirements and future plans. Features we love;- Ideally situated near a sports reserve, netball courts, schools, and the town centre.- Boasts two spacious living areas.- Equipped with fans and split systems throughout for climate control.- Enjoy the convenience of a gas fire, with an additional cozy coonara fire in the second living area.- Features a 6kW solar system.- Convenient side access.- North-facing front veranda for maximum sunlight.- Includes a sizable shed for storage.- A large front fence ensures privacy and security.- Established trees, lush lawns, fragrant flowers.
