Welcome to your dream home in the heart of a sought-after neighbourhood! This charming property offers endless possibilities with its versatile layout and spacious living areas. With 4 bedrooms, this home provides ample space for families and professionals alike. As soon as you step inside, you will be greeted by a cozy formal lounge with a split system for year-round comfort. The adjacent dining area is perfect for hosting dinner parties or intimate family meals or a separate study. And speaking of meals, the original kitchen has been updated with new appliances including an oven, dishwasher, and stove. Plus, there's even a split system in the kitchen area to keep things cool while cooking up delicious dishes. On chilly nights, snuggle up by the wood fire heater in the kitchen - perfect for creating that warm and inviting atmosphere. The second living area off the kitchen is ideal for entertaining guests or simply relaxing after a long day. The master bedroom boasts plenty of space along with a walk-in robe and ensuite. The second bedroom offers ample storage space thanks to its built-in robe, while the third bedroom also comes equipped with its own built-in robe and ensuite. Step outside onto your outdoor area where you can kick back and relax while enjoying some fresh air. Need extra storage? No problem! There's also a garden shed on the property to store all your tools and equipment. Convenience is key at this home - side gate access off laneway allows easy entry into your backyard without having to go through the house. Not only that but there's also another outdoor area accessible from the dining room - perfect for those summer BBQs! And let's not forget about parking - there's plenty of room here with double carport plus workshop facilities available too! Don't miss out on the opportunity to make this house your home. With its original charm, modern updates, and endless potential, this property won't last long.
