Only minutes away from beaches, schools and shops this level, three bedroom home is perfect for those that just want to live in a quiet location with quality homes. The interiors are light filled due to the north east facing aspect. The multiple living zones provide plenty of space for the family with a large lounge and dining room on entry and an open plan family room to the rear. Across from the family room, the kitchen is complete with a dishwasher, good storage and modern bench tops. The master bedroom is at the rear of the home and has its own ensuite bathroom and a large built-in-robe. The two remaining bedrooms also have built in robes and are serviced by a central main bathroom, with a separate toilet. The private patio area overlooks the sun-drenched, level yard with beautiful, manicured gardens and is an ideal space for a family game of cricket or playing with the family pet. The double garage has drive-thru access to the rear yard and there is extra parking for a boat to the side. - Ducted air-conditioning throughout- Gas bayonets- Double linen cupboard- Level rear yard
