MAKE THIS YOUR BEECHWORTH HOME!

Nestled behind an established front garden is this three-bedroom weatherboard home offering the perfect opportunity to enter the Beechworth real estate market. Ideal for the first home buyer, tree-changer, investor, or mature age down-sizer this home will appeal to many, especially with its location being within easy walking distance to the centre of town! From the front portico you enter a central hall with bedrooms one and two positioned to the front, further on is the third bedroom, bathroom with separate bath, shower and vanity and toilet adjoining. You'll love the generous open plan lounge/dining area leading off the country style kitchen, plus a rear vestibule and internal laundry. The living areas are kept toasty warm by a solid fuel heater and a split system heating/cooling unit. Outside there's an established garden & side driveway perfect for parking a caravan.
