"Morning Magic: Extensive Views Overlooking the Trevallyn Dam" 13 Columbus Drive presents your opportunity to step back, pause and wake up to this view every morning! This three-bedroom retreat will be hard to leave once you step inside. We invite you to come and discover why we are so excited to present this home to our market. The open-plan living area exudes beauty and warmth, serving as the heart of this home. The solid Blackwood timber kitchen is complimented by the new Bosch Induction Cooktop and appliances. A spacious kitchen area to enjoy. The stylish master ensuite has been recently renovated for everyday modern luxury. Complimented by a walk-in robe, this view stands above all others. Two additional bedrooms share a centrally located main bathroom, which can also serve as an ensuite for bedroom three. There is an additional third powder room for your convenience. The garden is a delight with mature trees ensuring privacy, the well-established plants and garden beds are a credit to the owners. A stunning place to spend some downtime. This home presents a wonderful opportunity for a family or couple wishing to purchase a quality home that offers that special Blackstone Heights peaceful and relaxed lifestyle whilst still being in close proximity to all of the shopping, schools and services that nearby Prospect has to offer.
