Expressions of Interest

Don't miss out on the chance to acquire one of the few remaining and well priced lots of land in the sought-after and continually expanding suburb of Riverside. This 745 square meter parcel of land is cleared and positioned on an elevated site at the city's edge, offering a serene and rural atmosphere for the fortunate new owner to construct their dream home. Essential services and utilities are already connected to the property's boundary, and the driveway crossover access is conveniently established. Located near the shopping centre and both public and private schools, as well as various community sports facilities that Riverside boasts, this land is an ideal choice for those seeking to establish roots in this vibrant community. Those homes which have been constructed in the surrounding streets are great examples of strong investment and value in the area and promise the prospect of strong future returns.
