Situated in a quiet street on a large 607sqm block, this beautifully renovated property will be sure to tick all your boxes and more! As soon as you open the lovely entry, take the internal stairs up to the bedrooms and living. The new kitchen is any cook's dream, presenting Caesar stone bench tops, stainless steel sink and quality fittings. Spread out with loads of storage with above and below cupboards and make use of the brand-new dishwasher, cooktop and oven. Freshly painted and top quality flooring throughout the entire home. The kitchen adjoins the expansive dining and lounge that open out to both front and back balconies where you can sit and catch the bay's lovely cool breezes. Keep cool with split system air conditioning in the upstairs living and all 3 large bedrooms. In addition to the AC, the master opens out to its own balcony. Downstairs you will find the teenage retreat, office space or studio as well as access to the internal laundry room and huge double garage. The garage includes loads of additional storage as well as a drive through garage gaining access into the huge back yard. But wait there is more! The possibilities are endless with the additional 9 x 6 m powered brick shed which could be perfectly set up as a garage/workshop. This home is situated within walking distance to local corner shops, and a short distance to transport, schools, Redcliffe Hospital and the water's edge. This property will not last!
