

13 Devere Avenue, Belrose, NSW 2085

Sold House

Friday, 8 September 2023

13 Devere Avenue, Belrose, NSW 2085

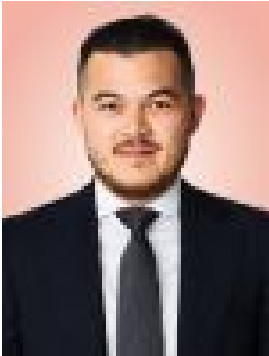

Bedrooms: 4

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 2

Area: 695 m2

Type: House

Keelan Scott
0299719000

James Leith
0290737888

$2,325,000

There's so much to love about this family haven but it's the landscaped garden and sparkling mineral pool that really make a splash. This much-loved family home fuses a relaxed sense of style with family functionality, while lush greenery all around brings a true sense of peace, privacy and serenity. A fluid layout from front to back with four bedrooms and a choice of living spaces offer a range of options for families to work, entertain and quiet retreat. Designed for fun through all the seasons, the established garden features an inground pool as its centrepiece with loads of space for kids to play in the sunshine. Part of a quiet family friendly neighbourhood, a stroll to Hews Reserve, The Belrose Hotel and Recreation Club while, Glenrose Village, Ralston Street IGA, schools, CBD and Chatswood are just minutes away. - Family friendly cul-de-sac, home backing onto reserve- Much loved and tightly held for over 40 years- Living room with wet-bar rest at one end of the home- Family domain features a defined lounge and dining space- Well-equipped kitchen presides over the gardens and pool- Four spacious bedrooms with built-in's and separate home office- Paved outdoor alfresco area, generous child-friendly level lawn - Inviting pool surrounded by established landscaped gardens- Carport, gas heating, plantation shutters, timber floors- Easy access to The Northern Beaches Hospital and surf beaches