Just a short distance from the Tyrone foreshore, this stylish residence is perfect for today's modern family. Boasting beautiful floating boards and a coastal colour palette, this seaside property exhibits an undeniable emphasis on indoor/outdoor living. The home welcomes you in to the open plan living and dining area, served by stylishly renovated kitchen, which is ideal for family gatherings with plenty of seating at the large island bench. Large stacker doors connect the indoors and outdoors opening to the undercover alfresco, perfect for enjoying the days of BBQs or simple leisure. Three good sized bedrooms, family bathroom, second toilet, sunroom and laundry complete the home. Set on a 739sqm (approx.) the rear yard provides space for the whole family to relax amongst the gardens and manicured lawn or scope for further landscaping if desired. Simply turn the key and relish in the fruits of the Peninsula with the beaches, shops and eateries all within minutes. Other notable features include, split system heating/cooling and tandem double carport.
