Imagine waking up to brilliant hillside views each morning, sipping your coffee from the expansive entertaining deck that wraps around the front of your new home. This stunning, fully renovated, four-bedroom, two-bathroom home perfectly balances peace, privacy, and the necessities you love from modern living. Tucked away at the end of a quiet cul de sac, 13 Douglas Street is ideal for families seeking relaxed living without giving up on convenience. As you enter through elegant French doors, you are immediately drawn to the stunning modern kitchen, which seamlessly flows into the dining area and living room, complete with direct access to the spacious deck for entertaining and enjoying the natural beauty surrounding. Full of natural light, the open-plan living area blends indoor and outdoor living, creating an idyllic space to entertain for any occasion. The home offers four generously sized bedrooms. The master suite boasts a sizeable walk-in robe and a simple yet elegant ensuite, with the added benefit of access to the deck. Perfect for the family, the main bathroom features a large bath. The remaining three bedrooms provide ample space for the family and feature built-in wardrobes. It's easy to fall in love with the contemporary styling paired with VJ panel feature walls, adding a subtle touch of character and tying the entire home together. The European laundry optimises space, and provides access to the backyard. Complete with a beautifully landscaped 893 sqm block offering plenty of room for the kids or pets to run wild safely. The double bay garage provides enough space for both family cars, while a separate area under the house provides the perfect space for all the toys or workshop space to tinker with! Plus, don't forget to collect your fresh eggs from the Hamptons-style chicken coop in the morning! The highlights: • 4 generously sized bedrooms • Master featuring a walk-in robe and ensuite, plus access to deck • Modern kitchen with stone bench tops and open plan living dining • Wrap-around verandah at the front of the home with a large entertaining space offering stunning views of the hills • Second bathroom with large bath • VJ panelling feature walls throughout for timeless style • All the storage you would need for a large family • 893 sqm block with landscaped gardens and plenty of lawn space • Family-friendly neighbourhood in a quiet cul de sac location • Fire pit, Hamptons-style chicken coop Are you interested in this stunning family home?
