Situated in the picturesque town of Strathalbyn, is this original three bedroom, timber clad home in need of serious renovation and reminiscent of the 1950's style of architecture. The home is located amongst many character homes, original buildings and has a magnificent Church as a neighbour. This generous allotment of 468sqm offers an outstanding opportunity to use your creativity and put your own stamp on this home, extend or STCC completely start again with a new build. A popular tourist destination and thriving town, Strathalbyn's High Street is infamous for its Antique Shops, the streets close by offer boutique shops, markets and beautiful heritage buildings. Enjoy brunch at one of the many cafes, bakeries and restaurants or stroll through the picturesque parklands on the banks of the Angus River. The ever so popular coastal towns of Victor Harbor, Port Elliot, Goolwa, Middleton and so many more are right on your doorstep boasting some of the most beautiful beaches in South Australia. The fertile lands accommodate many Wineries to taste a vino or two and Country Pub lovers will be in heaven !
