If you are looking for a home near the beach that offers a relaxed vibe and outstanding views, then look no further. With direct walking access to the Estuary via an unmade section of Mary Street, you are literally a couple of minutes from the water yet elevated enough to boast views of the Barnbougle coastline and beyond. The character timber home features 2 bedrooms and multiple living rooms which are complimented by a covered deck on two sides. Outbuildings include a Garage, storeroom and laundry located under the house. Huge 947m² block of land.
