With eye catching street appeal, immaculate presentation throughout, and a raft of character features, you can't go past this beautiful cottage. There are pressed metal walls and ceilings in the front of the home, a feature cast iron fire place, and a brand new roof has just been installed. The floor plan features 2 large bedrooms, stylish eat-in kitchen with gas cook top and walk-in pantry, a lounge room with split system air conditioner, and a modern bathroom with free standing bath. A single carport and a lock up workshop as well as a sunny front porch with a pleasant mountain outlook completes the picture. All set on a level and easy care 329 square metre block. Currently leased at $330 per week until Decemeber 2023. A rare find in a quiet street on the edge of town.
