Tucked away on a quiet street, yet mere moments to the hub of Healesville, this quaint home on a big 1,200m² (approx.) block offers a serene and splendid lifestyle. Surrounded by the greenery of the region with a beautiful backdrop of the distant mountains, the freshly updated abode is move in or rent out ready with the character of a country home and the comfort you desire. Timber floors flow throughout the living area with a desirable Northerly aspect and connection to the verandah, the two bedrooms have new carpet, and the kitchen is lovely and bright with stainless steel appliances including a dishwasher. Also including fresh paint, a humble bathroom with shower over half bath, separate toilet, good-sized laundry with backyard access, and reverse cycle heating and cooling. Outside you'll instantly be impressed with the spaciousness of the allotment that includes a carport, easy access to the backyard from the driveway, a cubby house, vegetable planter boxes, and a garden shed, plus fencing all around. Whether your dream is a quaint escape, an extension to accommodate more, or a new build within serene surrounds (STCA), this property has the space and opportunity to be just what you're after.
