Perfectly positioned in the popular suburb of Oakdowns, this neat as a pin property, provides a fantastic opportunity for first homeowners, downsizers, or investors alike. With excellent presentation throughout, the home's freshly painted interior comprises of three bedrooms, all with built-in robes, plus the added extra of a spacious walk-in robe in the master. All complimented by a spotless central bathroom and a separate laundry. Filled with natural light and reverse cycle heating and cooling, the open living and dining areas are adjoined to a generous kitchen with plenty of storage and modern appliances. The dining area opens to a large deck, creating the perfect spot for entertaining with a beautiful backdrop of Mount Wellington. The outdoor space includes a storage shed and is fully fenced, making it perfect for children and pets. As a huge added bonus, there is also a relocatable pod in the backyard. Being lined and powered with heating/cooling this additional space will make the perfect rumpus room, home office, gym, or man-cave! This lovely home is close to local schools, parks, public transport, and shopping centres. With easy access to the airport, local beaches and within a 20-minute drive from Hobart CBD. With plenty of off-street parking for vehicles, this property is the perfect first home, downsizer or addition to your investment portfolio.*Kunama have made every effort to ensure the accuracy of the information contained herein.
