Showcasing the very best of design and style, this property is set back off the street and has had a magnificent renovation. This three bedroom home boasts immediate appeal and blends modern elements with classic style. This place is instantly inviting! A spacious and light filled lounge greets you and leads you into the dining and kitchen area, showcasing and taking advantage of its north facing aspect. The gourmet kitchen is well-appointed and features a plethora of bench and storage space. This house is perfect for entertaining guests with the kitchen and dining flowing seamlessly to the generously proportioned lounge. Accommodation is provided for on both levels of the home with the master bedroom upstairs. There is an ensuite and walk in robe up here, plus space for a reading nook or parents retreat with access out to a private outdoor deck. Outside, the home is equally as impressive with a beautifully maintained garden that provides a serene escape for outdoor entertaining or for watching the kids run around on the lawn. The home offers a double garage, separate single garage and plenty of off-street parking. Situated in a quiet court, 13 Highview Crescent offers style combined with a great layout with family living at the forefront. Anyone with their eye on the next move, this is your opportunity to make this masterpiece your own.
