A bushland getaway, set within the privacy of 4,072 sqm (approx.) and only a 20-minute drive into Castlemaine, this property offers glamping with comfort. The open-plan hut features north-facing sliding doors opening onto a wrap-around verandah overlooking the surrounding landscape, an open fireplace, a split system, and an outside shower connected to tank water. This property is connected to mains power, so if you are looking for a rustic living escape or just a weekend getaway and love being in nature, this property makes for a tranquil and private choice. This property is in the Farming Zone (FZ).
