The Perfect Family Home

Finished to perfection and flooded with natural light, this thoughtfully updated home is perfectly scaled, and well-appointed for contemporary family living and entertaining. Showcasing open-plan living, luxury inclusions and a covered balcony overlooking a landscaped child/pet friendly yard bathed in sunshine, this home truly ticks all the boxes.

Positioned high on a large 670sqm (approx.) block with ample space for both growing and established families, this impeccable residence features 3 good sized bedrooms all with built in wardrobes, along with a 4th bedroom/study and downstairs teenage retreat/rumpus room.

Ideally located on this quiet suburban street, close to the National Park and Heathcote's excellent amenities, here's what you'll love:

- Bespoke designer kitchen featuring quality Miele/AEG appliances
- Stone island bench/breakfast bar & splash-back
- Bright & airy, open plan living with quality timber floors
- Covered north facing balcony and play space off living area
- Second living area downstairs with full bathroom and space for kitchenette
- Versatile layout with potential for home office or media room
- Master bedroom and en-suite with bath and built-in robe
- Fully enclosed and beautifully landscaped, sunny yard with fire pit
- Covered alfresco entertaining area ready for inbuilt BBQ
- Zoned ducted air-conditioning throughout; Integrated garden sprinkler system
- Massive workshop with 3 phase power and plenty of storage
- Close to quality schools, cafes, shops, parks & Heathcote Station

Beautifully renovated, there is nothing to do but simply move in and relax.
