Situated on a spacious 1,006 square metre corner block with new Colorbond fencing, this property is a true gem in the serene area of Falcon, Mandurah. Surrounded by natural beauty, it offers a laid-back and peaceful lifestyle, that is second to none. One of the standout features of this property is its proximity to the beach and Falcon Primary School, which is less than a kilometre away. The beach offers endless opportunities for relaxation and recreation, whether it's swimming, sunbathing, or enjoying water sports. In addition to the beach, the area is also blessed with close proximity to local reserves, providing ample opportunities for outdoor activities. Convenience is another highlight of this location, with various shopping centres, food places, and medical centres in close proximity. Whether you're in the mood for a quick bite or need to run errands, everything is just a stone's throw away. You'll find yourself spoiled for choice with a range of dining options and retail outlets to cater to your every need. Build your dream home with space for a pool and powered workshop or develop with duplexes and rent out with council approval, the choice is yours.
