$335,000

Located in Rocherlea, one of Launceston's northern suburbs, is this great three bedroom home, with access to the rear yard, available for sale. With a guide of around $360 per week for rent, it would make a perfect investment or its the perfect home for anyone looking to get into the market. It's brick, has a tiled roof and aluminium windows and is in close proximity to bus stops, schools, shops and only 7 minutes drive into the Mowbray shopping centre. Value buying in Launceston.
