Sometimes in life, you can have what you wish for....a cute cottage by the sea. Superbly located just 500 metres to Flynn's Beach, this storybook, charmed cottage is sure to capture your heart and offers endless potential for the future. Privately positioned behind the hedge lined fence reveals a cottage garden with a sweeping, brick lined path leading to the front door. Upon entry you are greeted by polished floorboards and high ceilings, with ornate cornices that grace the interior all the way through, reflecting the home's rich history. Large windows flood the living room with natural light and offer a picture framed view into the garden, creating a private retreat to relax and unwind. Adding to the warmth and relaxed mood is a cast iron wood fire, just perfect for snuggling on a cool winter's night. Three bedrooms share close access to the eclectic main bathroom, where a combined hipbath/shower is highlighted by period, art deco pink and grey floor tiles and a timber window for natural light. A separate toilet adds a tick of convenience. Bathed in north-eastern light, the sunroom is the perfect spot to enjoy some reading or to create a spot to work from home without interference from the main living space. Escape into the fully fenced yard with its bold Bauhinia, perfect for a tree house and adding to the fairytale feel. All of this is a relaxed walk down the street to the mesmerising waters of the Pacific Ocean where you can cleanse your soul and then reward yourself with a coffee afterwards from one of the three cafes dotting the ocean front. Very few of these homes are left untouched so let your imagination run wild and make this dream come true for you.
