Set amidst beautiful cottage gardens this is in a perfectly quiet part of beautiful sought-after New Town. Featuring a pleasant blend of old-world charm and modern convenience. It features Tas oak flooring, picture rails and ceramic open fire with a mantel and a semi enclosed veranda, with all the beautiful character features that buyers are wanting. A reverse cycle heat pump and two panel heaters to take the chill of those winter days. Three double bedrooms, open plan dining/kitchen and formal lounge creates all the classic character in one. The easily accessible low maintenance garden and carport means it would appeal to young and old. With level walks to schools, supermarkets, and Jean Pascals Patisserie, this is a perfect place to relax but have everything so handy. Be quick to make this your home as it won't last!
