Generous design, light-filled spaces and family comfort combine in this smartly appointed brick residence to deliver the perfect environment for relaxed indoor outdoor living and entertaining. It offers a very private sanctuary with a fresh feel and a flowing single-level layout that is supremely easy-to-maintain. The property sits in a highly sought-after Strathfield South, footsteps to the vast expanse of Cooke Park and within moments to village shops and eateries. A well-designed floorplan with an airy and open living/dining area. Three bedrooms with built-ins plus large-sized attic level storeroom. Generous undercover patio, BBQ area and a leafy back garden. A separate studio with bathroom plus an attached workshop. Well-equipped modern kitchen and a bright casual dining space. An oversized carport and plenty of additional driveway parking.
