This master-built home is a rare find for those seeking a substantial residence in tranquil cul de sac setting. Custom designed for a large family, the home features classical high ceilings, formal and informal living areas and an open mezzanine-style hallway servicing the upper-level bedroom wings. The gently sloping east facing land parcel has an exceptional 25.8m frontage allowing the home to have an elegant street presence and enhancing privacy from adjoining properties. This property is a pleasure to inspect and should be on the top of your list.

- NE facing family room opening to relaxed patio and adjoining sunny servery-style kitchen
- Spacious parents retreat with elegant lounge, walk-in robe and large bathroom
- Covered alfresco entertainment area, perfect for young children and family gatherings
- Lower level teenagers retreat/home office well separated from the mainstream home
- Generous double garage suitable for four-wheel drive vehicles plus excellent storage
- Secure child friendly grounds with grassed play areas and established gardens
- Highly flexible land parcel with scope to extend the home further or reconfigure (subject to DA)
