$450,000

What a gorgeous outlook from this half acre cleared block on the River Heads peninsula offering completely un-obstructed views of Fraser Island. The block is ready to build on immediately with power, water and septic system in place but in the meantime you can be comfortable in the fully self contained shed at the rear of the property. The 6x9m shed with extra carport and caravan port has been beautifully finished to create a comfortable living space for those looking for a weekender to escape to or those wanting to build without having to pay to rent elsewhere in the meantime. The property has a studio with full kitchen with living area and has all the comforts of home like a/c, tv, internet and the carport doubles as an outdoor entertaining space with Fraser views. Behind the living area you will find a large bathroom with laundry and a single garage which could easily be transformed into a proper bedroom. The properties in front are already built on so these views will not be built out. A single story home will achieve great views from the top of the block or a double story will gain views right up and down the island. Don't miss this great opportunity and enquire now!
