Whether you're entering the property market or supplementing your portfolio, this beautiful apartment delivers the best of both comfort and convenience. Perfectly positioned near amenities including Southland & Southland Station, Highett Road Shops, Sandy Village and Sandringham Beach. A feature of this apartment is the balcony with additional storage space. It's an extension of your living, providing a place to enjoy fresh air, sip your morning coffee, or simply unwind with a good book. Natural light flows through the living and dining area, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere. The modern kitchen features a sleek stone benchtop, with gas cooktop and dishwasher. Also offered are split-system heating and cooling and single car space/car stacker. This apartment provides a fantastic living experience, combining modern amenities and a communal BBQ area exclusively for residents with a convenient location close to shops, restaurants, public transport and the beach.
