An immaculate, well maintained family home, this well positioned property features three bedrooms, two with built-in wardrobes and open plan living completed with a bay window and dining area which accesses the large undercover entertaining area. The kitchen has been updated and separated by a breakfast bar to the dining/living with a window looking over the entertainment area and back yard. The north facing sun delivers warmth to the home and there are views to majestic Mount Wellington. The bathroom has a separate bath, shower and vanity and the laundry has additional storage plus access to the undercover outdoor area. There is a large double garage and additional garden shed ensuring plenty of extra storage space for the gardening supplies to attend to the easy care landscaped yard. Situated conveniently close to amenities, shopping centres and educational facilities plus close to public transport, this lovely home is well worth an inspection!
