

130 Pope Street, Tarragindi, Qld 4121

Sold House

Wednesday, 21 February 2024

130 Pope Street, Tarragindi, Qld 4121

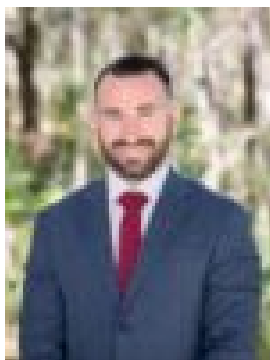

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 3

Parkings: 3

Area: 506 m2

Type: House

Mark Diamond

0432334767

$2,445,000

This stunning family home boasts modernist design and luxury finishes, offering over 400m² of internal space. Upon entry the residence quickly introduces you to the unique balance of grandeur and comfortable family living; you're greeted by high ceilings, oak flooring, and feature voids. The heart of the home is the sleek kitchen with a 60mm Charcoal soapstone island bench, Smeg appliances, and a butler's pantry. Natural light floods the space, seamlessly integrating indoor and outdoor entertaining areas. The lower level includes a media room, study, laundry, powder room, and a three car lock up garage with ample storage space and 4m ceiling height. Features include: - Near new contemporary entertainer on 506sqm allotment- Spectacular central living zone with feature 6 metre void- Designer kitchen with breakfast island and Smeg appliances- Covered alfresco with barbecue, bar fridge plus plunge pool- Stunning master has luxurious ensuite plus walk-in robes- Guest bedroom or teenage room with ensuite- Zoned air-conditioning plus ceiling fans throughout - Security cameras and alarm system- Polytec cabinetry with stone splashbacks to kitchen and butlers- Catchment for Wellers Hill State School Located in a sought-after area of Tarragindi, this residence enjoys an elevated position and is conveniently within walking distance to parks and public transportation. With effortless access to the CBD, it falls within the catchment area for Wellers Hills State School and other highly regarded educational institutions. Tarragindi is known for its family-friendly atmosphere, offering ample parklands, dog parks, biking trails, and a variety of charming cafes and eateries.